

Friends of the Lakes Country Public Library

The “Friends” is a non-profit organization of volunteers united in their effort to support and expand public library services in the Lakes Country area.

- Provide volunteer service as needed to develop the library facilities and services.
- Sponsor fund raising events.
- Keep you informed of what’s happening at our library.
- Stimulate greater public support in, and use of, the library.
- Encourage gifts, endowments, and memorials to the library.

Enjoy the satisfaction of helping one of the community’s most treasured assets.

*We need your ideas, energy and support.
Please join us so that the library can be a better friend to the community.*
