Spring 2023

UPCOMING EVENTS

Garden Classes

Master Garden Volunteers will share their love of gardening. Classes begin at 2 pm and last about 1 hour. Space is limited so please sign up at the circulation desk to reserve a spot.

April 25- Root crops Learn about the requirements of root crops. Take home some seeds, a horseradish root, and recipes.

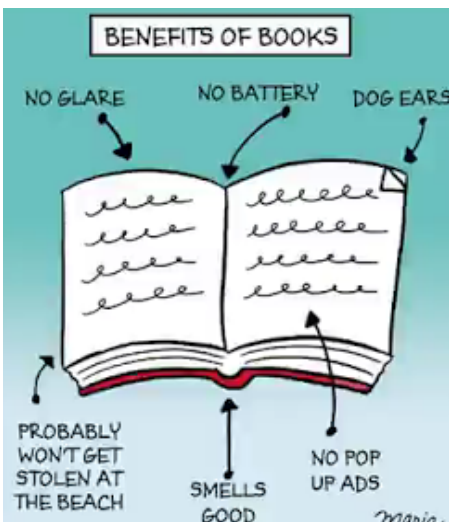

May 23- Potatoes We'll discuss the different potatoes that thrive in this area and how to grow them. Samples provided.

June 27- Build a Trellis Participants will build and take home a trellis to support their vegetable or flower vines.

August 22- Composting We'll share our experiences composting in the northwoods. Take home a bag of composted manure.

Used Book Sale

The Friends helped run a book sale in February which made a profit of $337. The next sale is May 26th and May 27th during regular library hours. Please take any donations of books, CDs, DVDs, or puzzles to the circulation desk so we can fill the shelves.

Friend's Meeting

The next meeting of The Friends will take place on May 9th at 9:15 am. Come join us!

HAVE YOU RENEWED YOUR MEMBERSHIP?

The Friends value your membership. Membership dues supply the library with new materials and support programming, landscaping, and summer interns. Anyone can join and all members are welcome to help with our fundraisers. It's fun, you'll meet new people, and you'll be helping your community. You'll also receive an electronic quarterly newsletter. To sign up

- Print and fill out the attached form. You can also pick up a form at the library.
- Return the form with your $10 payment to the library in person or via postal service.

HELP US REACH OUR GOAL

The Library Building Fund Committee cordially invites you to the Second Annual Fundraiser Dinner and Auction on Saturday, May 13th at McCauslin Brook Golf Course and Country Club. Details are still being finalized but updates will be posted on the Library website or in the local newspapers.
